

Premi Jordi Fulla

Artist Residency 2025

PIRAMIDÓN.
CENTRE D'ART CONTEMPORANI

JORDI FULLA ARTISTIC RESIDENCY AWARD AT PIRAMIDÓN, CENTRE D'ART CONTEMPORANI, BARCELONA.

Piramidón Centre d'Art Contemporani is pleased to announce the launch of the second edition of the Jordi Fulla Artistic Residency Award, open to visual artists who wish to explore and develop their creative practice within the dynamic artistic context of Barcelona.

The award is named after the artist Jordi Fulla [Igualada, 1967 – Igualada, 2019], who was one of the first artists to occupy a creative studio at Piramidón, residing there between 1991 and 2005, leaving an indelible mark.

The award seeks to honor his artistic figure, legacy, and his restless, creative spirit.

· ABOUT PIRAMIDÓN CENTRE D'ART CONTEMPORANI ·

Piramidón, Centre d'Art Contemporani, is a unique space that combines artistic production with the promotion, exhibition, and commercialization of artworks. With 18 studios that have welcomed over 170 artists from 30 different nationalities, Piramidón serves as a vibrant meeting point for artists to develop their practice in an environment that encourages creativity and fosters meaningful connections within the contemporary art sector.

· OBJECTIVE ·

The award aims to provide contemporary visual artists with the opportunity to fully immerse themselves in Barcelona's vibrant artistic scene. It offers a chance to live and work in a dedicated studio, enabling artists to deepen their creative practice or explore new directions in their work. In addition to studio time, the award includes participation in a series of cultural activities designed to enrich their practice and foster connections with the local and international art community.

· DURATION OF THE RESIDENCY ·

The residency will last for two months, during which the selected artist will have access to a private studio at Piramidón Centre d'Art Contemporani.

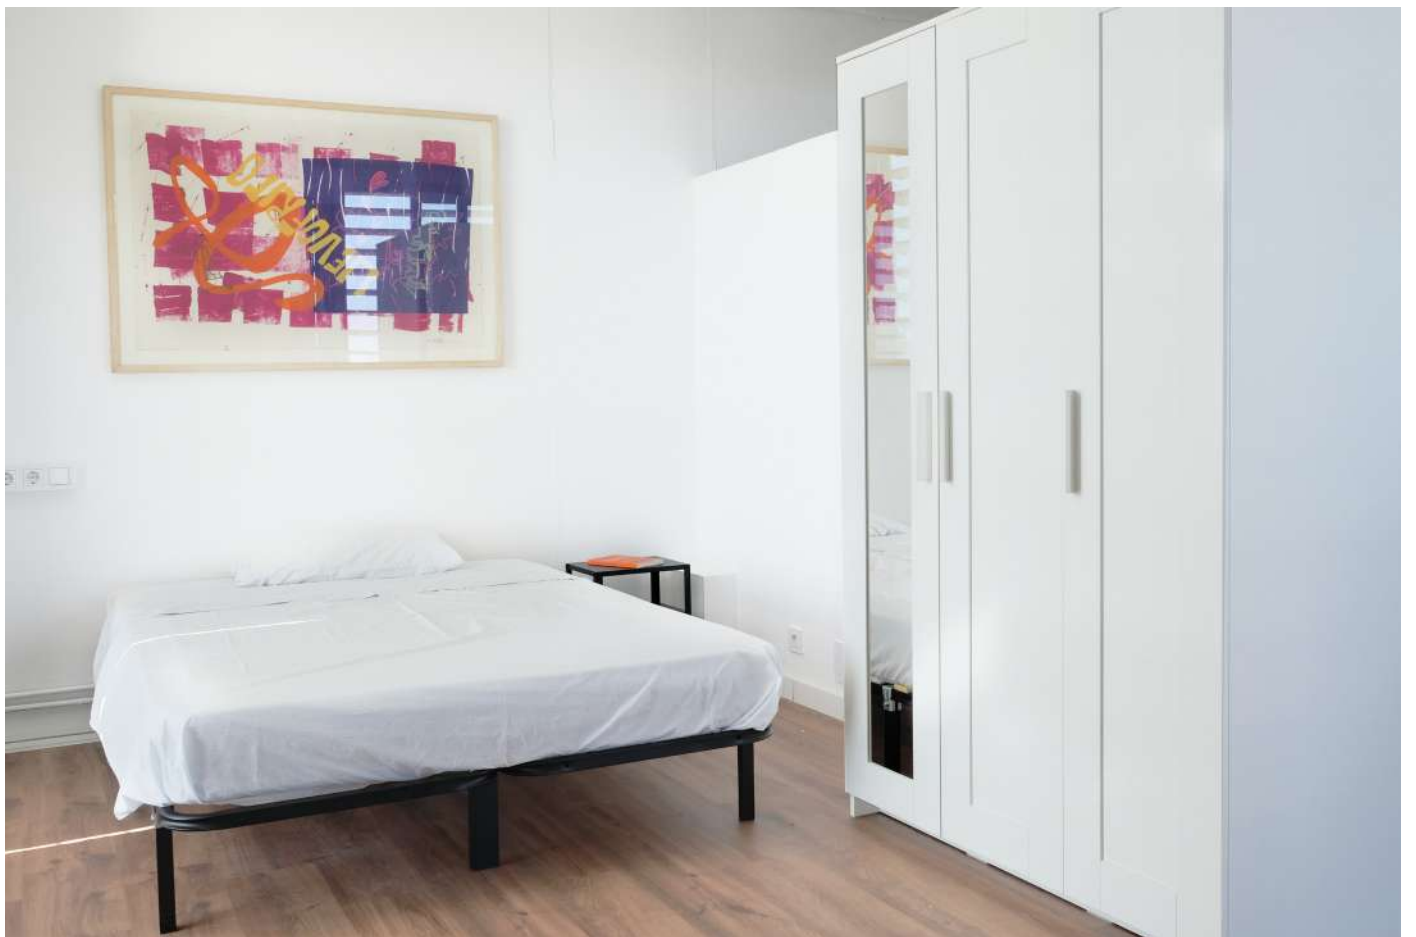

· BENEFITS ·

Use of a private studio at Piramidón Centre d'Art Contemporani, ranging from 70 to 120 m², with abundant natural light, the best views of Barcelona, and 24/7 access every day. The studio includes a living area with a kitchen and a dedicated workspace.

- Up to €500 for the purchase of materials to support artistic production during the residency.
- Full access to the centre's library, meeting room, and terrace.
- Use of necessary tools and machinery in the workshop, with technical support available.
- Participation in monthly gatherings with guests from the cultural and creative sectors, including activities such as informal discussions and social events.
- Promotion of the artist's work and activities through the centre's communication channels.
- Opportunity to take part in a group exhibition at Piramidón's gallery, including an opening event and related activities.

· ELIGIBILITY ·

The award is open to visual artists of all nationalities and backgrounds.

Applicants must have held a solo exhibition at an art gallery or institution within the last three years.

· ARTIST'S COMMITMENT ·

- Mention in their Curriculum Vitae that they have been awarded the Jordi Fulla Residency Award at Piramidón Centre d'Art Contemporani, specifying the dates of their residency period.
- Participate in a group exhibition at Piramidón's gallery.
- Donate a work created during the residency to Piramidón's collection, selected by mutual agreement between the artist and the institution.
- Be responsible for travel and living expenses.

· SELECTION PROCESS ·

Candidates will be evaluated by a jury composed of members of the Piramidón team, artist Jo Milne, and Alícia Vogel, winner of the first edition of the Jordi Fulla Award.

Selection will be based on the quality of the submitted work, the potential for development during the residency, and the artist's ability to contribute to the creative environment of the centre and the broader artistic community.

· HOW TO APPLY ·

Applicants must submit a dossier including:

- An updated curriculum vitae
- A portfolio of recent works
- A project proposal outlining what they wish to work on, develop, or research during the residency

Applications must be sent by email to info@piramidon.com by August 15, 2025.

· JORDI FULLA AWARD WINNERS 2024 ·

After a rigorous selection process that received over 100 high-quality proposals from artists around the world, the jury-comprising the Piramidón team and guest artists Jo Milne and Fran Baena-decided to award the prize ex aequo to two outstanding artists: Guillermo Mora [Alcalá de Henares, 1980] and Alícia Vogel [Olot, 1991].

Alícia Vogel completed her residency at Piramidón during October and November 2024, while Guillermo Mora carried out his residency in April and May 2025.
